- partnerships with iwi representations (mana whenua) of each of the university's three campuses, including: Te Rūnanga o Ngāti Whātua (Ōtehā Campus); Rangitāne o Manawatū (Manawatū Campus); Te Rūnanganui o Te Ātiawa o Te Ūpoko o Te Ika Inc (Pukeahu Campus). relationships with Māori authorities, such as iwi, hapū, marae, urban Māori authorities and other Māori expertise collectives, to partner in the advancement of Māori development goals, and.
- creation and further development of opportunities and spaces for dialogue and development of new knowledge and understandings about Te Tiriti, and our collective responsibilities in honouring its provisions and principles.

2. Tino Rangatiratanga: Māori Authority, Autonomy and Self-determination

- acknowledgement of the special status of Māori as Tangata Whenua (the Indigenous peoples of Aotearoa) withwi, hapū

© This Policy is the property of Massey University

Treaty of Waitangi Act 1975

Related procedures / documents:

Academic Freedom Policy (2022).

Matua Kaupapa Reo – Māori Language Policy (2014).

Massey University Strategy 2022-2027.

Document Management Control:

Prepared by: Office of the DVC Māori

Approved by: Council C23/52

Next review: July 2027

© This Policy is the property of Massey University

APPENDIX A: TE TIRITI COMMITMENTS 2022-2027

Examples of Te Tiriti commitments made by the University within the Massey University Strategy 2022-2027 include:

Art.	Provisions and Principles	Commitment	Reference within MU Strategy
		Developing University governance models, policies, procedures, and regulations in accordance with Te Tiriti responsibilities.	, p. 6.
		An emphasis on Māori research and teaching and learning to support Māori development goals.	, p. 7.
1	KĀWANATANGA: Good governance Fiduciary duty and Partnership	Giving effect to Te Tiriti through the design and content of our curricula, pedagogies, and academic decision-making, and teaching and learning approaches, regulations, and procedures.	Pou Ako, p. 11.

© This Policy is the property of Massey University

Promoting, advancing, and protecting Te Reo and

TAONGA:

3 Active Protection

and

Development

© This Policy is the property of Massey University