

The importance of ako and lotu for Pasifika tertiary achievement

Improving the educational achievement of Pacific people is an on-going development issue in New Zealand. Research by Sesimani Havea of Massey University explores the relationship between lotu (spirituality) and ako (education), and the ways in which lotu influences academic achievement of Pasifika tertiary students.